LONDON, April 17 (Associated Press).-From such reports as are permitted from the eastern front it is becoming apparent that the greatest battle of the war-at least, so far as concerns the number of men engaged is being fought in the Carpathians slong the 115-mile front from Hartfeld, in Northern Hungary. to Stry, in Kastern Galicia.

This line roughly parallels the boundary between Hungary and Galiis, running through a difficult mountain region through which the Russians hope to break a way into the heart of Hungary.

German war correspondents style this battle the greatest in the history of the world, and it is estimated that 3,500,000 men are taking part. According to the German reports, the Russian advance, which a week ago seemed to be threatening the integrity of Hungary, has now been checked definitely. It is said that the Russian losses in killed, wounded, sick and prisoners are 500,000.

THREE NEW MOVES TO BEAT ORDER TO TAKE THAW BACK

Appellate Division Decides Slayer Must Be Returned to Matteawan

SANITY TRIAL

Other Court Proceedings Likely to Drag Case Out for Months Yer

Counsel for Harry K. Thew will hold a conference to-day to decide on further plane Though Thew must return to Mattanwan, according to yesterday's decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, it is understood his lawyers, before next Wednesday, when Sup! Kieb is expected to apply for his custody, will have under way three moves to keep Standford White's slayer out of Matteawan.

They pin their hope mainly to habeas corpus proceedings, and their first move will be made Monday when a motion will be made before Justice Hendrick for a jury to pass on Thaw's sanity. This will be in connection with the habeas corpus motion pending before Justice Hendrick, and the Thaw lawyers will be prepared to go ahead with the sanity inquiry either before the Justice or a jury. The court will secide whether Thaw is to remain in the Tombs pending the conclusion of the proceeding.

The second move will be the filing of notice to the Court of Appeals, asking that Thaw be ordered kept out of the asylum until yesterday's decision is reviewed by the highest State court.

The third move will be an application to a Supreme Court Justice to rrant a stay of the Appellate Division order commanding Thaw's return to Matteawan. If Thaw loses in all the State courts be still may have recourse to the Federal courts. The indications are that the Thaw case will drag along for many months yet, unless he wins in the first proceedings and is declared same.

It was said for the Attorney General that no effort would be made to "railroad" Thaw back to Matteawan. The prisoner is pretty much in the same position now that he was when he escaped from Matteawan, except that he is in the Tombs and has a chance of getting a sanity trial in New York County, which was impossible while he was in the asylum. He was not surprised by yesterday's

The five Justices of the Appellate Division united in denying Thaw permission to return to New Hampshire, from which he was extradited, and the judgment of Justice Page ordering him back to Matteawan was affirmed.
